

As I understand it the Broadcast Flag Mandate may forbid my working with software defined radio and possibly other technologys that use analogue to digital conversion even as an amatuer radio license holder or as an experimenter in my own home. I understand the concerns of copyright holders however any legilation should be more narrowly drafted so non-broadcast/recording technology use is not restricted.

Thank you.